Entry Rules

- This show is held in strict accordance with the latest and revised Official Show Rules of the American Rabbit Breeders Association, Inc.
- All rabbits must be permanently marked in the left ear prior to showing. All cavies shall be legibly earmarked or tagged prior to showing.
- Exhibitors are responsible to make sure their rabbits/cavies are taken to the judging area when called.
- All animals must be healthy and in proper-sized transport cages. Any animals deemed diseased or unsightly shall be removed from the showroom immediately and entry fees on such specimens will be forfeited.
- The club and/or its officers are not liable for any injury or damage in connection with the show.
- Any issue arising that cannot be resolved by reference to the official show committee; decision will be final.
- Entry fees must accompany mail-in forms or they will be considered Day of Show Entries.
- Any person with a return check for this show or for any other service will be required to pay all outstanding fees (including NSF fees charged by our bank) and the current year fees with cash or money order before they will be allowed to show.
- A separate entry form required for each entrant and show, so make copies as needed, you may use the generic entry form found on the OLR CB website or the form provided in our catalog.
- Please circle the show you are entering on each entry form.
- Any phone calls for clarification will be made collect (If we cannot reach you, your entry may be scratched... see official rules).
- CORBA reserves the right to refuse entries from exhibitors placing an entry from all locations within 150 miles, which has had a confirmed outbreak of RCV/RHD/VHD within the past 60 days of the entry deadline.
- All ear changes and substitutions are only allowed in the same breed, variety, class and sex. It is the exhibitor's responsibility to check exhibitor list/confirmation for entry errors prior to judging at the show secretary table.
- In order to reduce entry errors, be fair to all exhibitors and have a well-organized show, CORBA will strictly follow the entry deadlines and rules outlined in this catalog.
