Important Information About This Show!

- ❖ Location: Florence Events Center, 715 Quince Street, Florence, OR. The Events Center is 1 hr. 15 mins from Eugene, OR via Hwy 126.
- ❖ Facility: NO HAY, whatsoever, allowed into this building. That means, NO HAY. So, what if I don't read show catalogs, and have hay in my carriers? Then you will be asked to keep your covies outside of the building.
- ❖ Space: Please consolidate your cages, tables, chairs etc. If the room becomes crowded, chairs will need to be removed. There is a nice covered atrium area right outside the door for seating. You may place carriers on tables and UNDER tables but need to bring plastic to go under your tables to place the carriers on.
- ❖ Lunch: We must be out of the building by 4:00 PM. Therefore, we will be starting PROMPTLY at 9:00 AM, and only taking a 30-minute lunch break. Bring a brown bag lunch to enjoy on the covered atrium right outside the showroom or run into town for take-out. Old Town is nearby, as well as a Dairy Queen and a McDonalds. There is a Safeway within walking distance.
- ❖ COVID-19 Considerations: Masks will be worn at the show at all times by everyone. You may wear a fabric mask, a paper mask (disposable type), or a face shield. All are approved by Oregon State Health Authority. We will be mindful of social distancing. If you are someone who cannot wear a mask because of health considerations, then attending is not going to be possible as you would need to stay outside the building and social distanced from others, according to OSHA guidelines, which we are required to meet. We are all working within the regulations in order to enjoy the hobby we all love, and keep everyone safe. We managed quite well in Rickreall so we know we can do it! There will be a waiver to sign for every person attending, exhibitors and guests. This is required. This will be a no comment card show, in order to lessen contact and also expedite judging.
