

OLRCB Membership meeting
June 8, 2013 Redmond, Oregon

The meeting was called to order by President Muriel Keyes at 8:15. Board members present included President Muriel Keyes, Treasurer Judy Atchison, Secretary Judy Rossner, and Directors Karyn Fegles, Diana Keefe, Eryn Wutzke, and Teri Jordahl.

Club Reports

Rose City Rabbit Fanciers: Frozen Friends show in 2014 will not be held by RCRF. Western Frontier Rabbit & Cavy Shows will be doing benefit shows.

Klamath Basin Rabbit & Cavy Breeders: Travis Finkle is President of the new club in Klamath Falls, OR. Terri Geroux is Vice President. They are working on getting their charter.

Crazy 8 Rabbit & Cavy Breeders: The May show was a success and they are looking forward to the October "Buns & Broomsticks" show in McMinnville.

Minutes: A motion was made to skip the reading of the previous minutes and approve them as printed in the latest issue of the OLRCB Newsletter. M/S/C

Treasurer Report: None

Secretary Report: None

Old Business: The Logo Contest had 1 submission from a youth member. The contest will continue with Diana Keefe as Chairman.

New Business: The President thanked the Show Committee for all their hard work. Muriel also announced that the 2014 Convention will be held in Roseburg on Friday May 30 through Sunday June 1. Judges have been hired. It will be decided at a later date as to having a banquet or potluck. Ted DeLoyola was recognized by President Keyes. He would like to see the OLRCB be the largest show in the state giving bigger and better awards. Youth especially like receiving awards and having nice awards also builds interest in new members. Ramie Grissom suggested "Breeder Sponsored Awards". Each breed would be responsible for their own awards. The matter was tabled to be discussed at a later BOD meeting.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:40.

Respectfully,
Judy Rossner
Secretary

Approved 11/23/2013